2014 Birdathon Pledge Form

The 2012 Birdathon group identified 422 bird species! How many species do you think they will count on this year’s trip? Guess correctly for your chance to win a free copy of Birds of Peru!

I guess that from October 2 – 11th, 2014, Birdathoners will identify _____ species.

There are three ways in which you, too, can donate to support bird conservation in southeastern Peru:

1. Visit us on the web at www.amazonconservation.org/getinvolved to make a one-time donation in support of the event. Please write in “Birdathon” as the designation.
2. Mail a check payable to Amazon Conservation Association for a one-time donation of $_____. Please write “Birdathon” in the memo line and mail it to the address above.
3. Or, make a per-species pledge and we will contact you after the total number of species seen is counted! Please indicate your pledge per bird and mail to the address above, and include your email address so that we may contact you with the final species count:
